

Woman in History Remembering Project

Douglas County Historical Society

March 23, 2024

This is your invitation to honor a woman for the Annual Women's History Remembering Project, held by the Douglas County Historical Society to commemorate Women's History Month.

This project was inspired by the National Women's History Project and the Nevada Women's History Project. It is designed to collect the stories of Douglas County women who might otherwise be forgotten. All information collected will become property of the Douglas County Historical Society and archived in the Van Sickle Research Room at the Carson Valley Museum and Cultural Center in Gardnerville and also with the Nevada Women's History Project in Reno.

Nomination Criteria

1. The woman you wish to honor must have lived in Douglas County
2. The woman you wish to honor shall have made a SIGNIFICANT HISTORICAL CONTRIBUTION to the quality of life in Douglas County.
3. One nomination per presenter.
4. The deadline to submit the nomination form is February 23, 2024.

The nominating forms must be accompanied by two (2) copies of double-spaced typewritten biographical presentation, and two (2) 5" x 7" photographs for display as well as press releases. You may submit your completed forms, presentation, and photos by email, postal service, or personal delivery to the office in the Carson Valley Museum & Cultural Center. These items will become the property of the DCHS and will be kept in the archives at the Douglas County Historical Society, along with the biographical presentation.

At the event, there will be an exhibit designed around each honoree. Please bring items of interest for the exhibit to the museum by March 22nd between 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. These items will be displayed at the discretion of the DCHS Committee. Please check with the committee regarding the size of items etc. All memorabilia will be exhibited for one year. You will be notified when the items may be collected.

In nominating a Douglas County woman, you, or a person you designate, will be asked to make a 7-minute biographical presentation on the day of the event. If you have any questions, please call the office at (775) 782-2555 or Christy Canatsey Nolting at (775) 315-4437.
